Last Day to have a say in the Design of the community park

Tuesday April 13, 2004 7:30 Arts Bank 601 South Broad St. 3rd Floor.

This is the last day for the community to have a say in the design of the park at 12th and Catharine St. UARS students will present a final Proposal, there will be an ongoing discussion,

Community input is needed.

If you want your voice heard please attend this Important meeting .On March 16th, the meeting was well attended and the students presentation

Generated a lively discussion and exchange of Ideas.

One idea was to sell bricks for the pathways in the Park as a fund-raiser. They could be engraved to Honor the many community activists we have had In Hawthorne, naming the park was discussed, a Favorite name for me was" MARTIN LUTHER KING SQUARE AT HAWTHORNE", which incorporates The MLK name and the area we live in

Plan to attend this important meeting and share Your thoughts on the park

Seventeen of the "men in blue" to graduate in April

Your Ready, Willing & Able neighbors would like to invite members of the Hawthorne community to our first Philadelphia graduation ceremony. Seventeen members of the work training program will graduate this month. They have all secured independent housing, full-time permanent employment and are enjoying self-sufficient and drug-free lifestyles. They are proud of the work they have done keeping Philadelphia beautiful, and assure you that the new RWA trainees will continue to keep Hawthorne clean.

For graduation details or information about the RWA program, contact Kate at (215) 732-3781 x18.

Congratulations!
